Our company provides the automation services for the international brewing industry.

We will consider newly qualified engineers / software developers.

This job opportunity is suited to young and intelligent graduates who are interested in travelling internationally and who want to work in the production automation industry.

Qualifications and requirements: • Degree in Engineering or Computer Science • Computer literacy in MS Office • Programming knowledge essential • PLC programming advantageous • Experience with SQL Databases • Prepared to travel internationally during commissioning phases of projects

Duties and responsibilities: • Implement batch processing plant configuration according to specification • Create PLC programs for batch control automation (for example Siemens Step7) • Create SCADA projects • Visualize production facilities for Human Machine Interface

Please respond with your CV, qualifications, and a motivational letter

Jade.anderson@woermann.co